AUTO PLUNGED INTO RIVER.

Yesterday about noon as Mr. C. D. Campbell, member of the firm of Hughes & Campbell of Mt. Carmel, was attempting to start his automobile truck up the grade from the wharfboat the brake gave way and the machine backed into the river. It was necessary to secure black and tackle to get the auto up on the bank again. No damage done to either the machine or Mr. Campbell.

There will be a "spelling match" at the First Presbyterian church Friday evening, February 5. Admission, refreshment and good time, all for only 10 cents.

SLED RAN INTO AUTOMOBILE.

The others escaped with slight bruises. After receiving medical attention from Dr. Yazell, Mr. Mills was taken to his home in East Third street. He is able to be out this morning.

Prominent Maysville Attorney Passed Away Very Suddenly At His Home In East Second Street Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock the death angel visited another Maysville home and took from it a father and a husband, Mr. John L. Chamberlain.

Mr. Chamberlain had been ill for only a few days with pneumonia and was not thought to be seriously ill, but he grew suddenly worse yesterday afternoon and died at the time mentioned above, his immediate death being due to heart failure.

Deceased was born at Jersey Ridge, this county, 52 years ago, and he has made Maysville and Mason county his home all his life. In his younger days he was a teacher in the Maysville and Mason county schools, but after reading law under Hon. Garrett S. Wall, he was admitted to the bar some 25 years ago, and since then has been a prominent member of the Mason county bar. During the term of Hon. William H. Cox as mayor of this city, he served as city attorney and he has often served in equally responsible positions in both the county and city.

He was regarded at the time of his death as one of the leading legal lights in this section of the county.

He was a prominent member of Limestone Lodge No. 36, Knights of Pythias.

Besides his wife, he is survived by one daughter, Miss Lola; two sisters, Miss Alice Chamberlain and Mrs. Frank Purnell of Dayton, O., and one brother, Mr. William Chamberlain of Louisville.

The funeral will be held from his late home tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, with services by Rev. A. F. Stahl of the Christian church.

Interment in the Maysville cemetery.

PASSED PEACEFULLY AWAY

Rev. D. D. Chapin, Former Beloved Rector of the Church of the Nativity Here, Died At Sheldon, Vermont.

The Rev. Daniel Dinsmore Chapin, for several years rector of the Church of the Nativity in this city, and one of the most intellectual and Godly ministers residing here, died at his home in Sheldon, Vt., January 27, aged 82 years.

He is survived by one son, Rev. John Chapin, and two daughters, Miss Nellie, who resides in New York City, and Miss Bessie Chapin, who resided with her father.

Funeral and burial today at Sheldon. It was while Rector Chapin had charge of the Episcopal parish here that the beautiful and lasting repair and improvements were made in our pretty and unique Church of the Nativity. The death of Mr. Chapin is recorded and heard here with deep sorrow. Peace be with him.

PROMINENT RIPLEY MEN HERE.

Yesterday, Attorney Chambers Baird, former mayor of Ripley, and Mr. Charles J. Finger, receiver and general manager of the Ohio River & Columbus railroad company, with headquarters at Ripley, came up on business, and to see Maysville's great tobacco market. They also made this office a pleasant call. Both are brilliant and forceful writers. They even write poetry—not for the yawning wastebasket, either. Mr. Finger is a former New Yorker, and as a globe trotter he has a wide reputation. He edited a Spanish newspaper in Chile and is said to be the first white man to enter certain parts of Terra Del Fuego, South America.

Nelse says when the wooley worm is black fore and aft and a red streak in the center, the first of the winter will be hard, then a mild spell, and from then on look out for squalls. We got 'em.

A New Interest in the White Sale

You can come to this sale every day and each time discover something new. Never has Maysville had so attractive a collection of lingerie at such modest prices. As for quantities you can judge them by two items alone. The sale opened with thirty dozen corset covers at one price, 25c, and fifty dozen nightgowns at one price, $1. Besides many dozen gowns and corset covers at other prices. It may sound incredible but it is true. Also, in spite of an unusually generous stock for the opening of the sale, rush orders were necessary to fill depleted ranks before the sale was four days old. These facts are as important as prices in telling you the values the sale presents.

WASTED YEARS.

"One thing that I like about your school," remarked former President Taft the other day addressing a technical institution for girls, "is the fact that you keep your pupils here from 8 o'clock in the morning until 4 in the afternoon, and you don't give them so much vacation. Our girls and boys have entirely too much vacation."

Most of us are slowly coming around to that view. The more we think of it, the more absurd it seems that our costly educational plants should be idle about one-third of the year, and not working to capacity at any time. Of course, it isn't any use keeping children cooped up for a longer time than they sustain their interest and attention. That is a matter for sensible adjustment. In technical or manual work pupils can apply themselves longer without mental weariness than in mere book work.

There isn't much doubt that any but very young children could be profitably occupied, by proper alternation work, for say seven hours a day. And children of all ages could be profitably occupied for a far greater number of weeks in the year than they are now.

It would be a boon to overburdened mothers to cut short the summer vacations. And a wise filling up of the child's time would mean a gain of perhaps two years in its period of preparation for the work of life; or better still, two years' work added to the present preparation, without taking any more time or any more of the child's strength. —Owensboro Messenger.

COMPETITION.

In one of our large cities a few years ago a disastrous fire occurred in a large building next door to a hospital. In the excitement which ensued a couple of invalids who had been in bed for years scampered down the stairs and out into the street.

Many business men are just like that. They need a strong stimulant to make them demonstrate their supremacy.

They need to be overtaken by some dire necessity which will force them to paddle their own canoe instead of merely drifting along.

That's why every business man ought to have a first-class competitor. It may keep him awake nights, but it's a good thing for his business to have some such spur as this.

Sometimes it takes aggressive competition to drive a man to this point. But sometimes a man has power within himself to make him strive to the uttermost.

What kind of a man are you? Do you have to be forced, or can you do the forcing?

Better devote a little time to thinking this over. —Wroe's Writings.

DONE BY THE TYPES.

Newspaper compositors and men who edit copy, no matter how eagle-eyed they may be, sometimes allow errors to get by that are either laughable or humiliating. A Chicago paper in reporting a political meeting, said the vast audience rent the air with their shouts. Another Chicago paper reported that the propeller Alaska was leaving port with a cargo of 40 bushels of cats. A Buffalo paper, in describing the scene when Roosevelt took the oath of office as President, said it was a spectacle never to be forgotten when Roosevelt before the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and a few witnesses, took the simple bath.

Senator Elihu Root is in receipt of a letter from Dr. Charles W. Eliot, former president of Harvard University, and a Democrat, praising him for his speech against the ship purchase bill, and declaring the measure to involve dangerous principles.

UNPREPAREDNESS.

It ought not to be necessary to argue the proposition that we are a peace loving nation and intend to remain so. The spirit of militarism, as we have seen it manifested abroad, is hateful to us, and any efforts in any quarter to develop it would be flat failure. But the mere fact that we are not inviting trouble and do not want it is no guaranty that it may not come our way, and possibly with stunning and disastrous suddenness, more particularly if it is obvious that we are in no condition to meet it. The burglar prefers to operate along the line of least resistance, and the same is true of the covetous and arrogant nation, and just now the minimum of resistance for a great country seems to be the unpleasantly distinguishing feature of the United States.

RATHER CAUSTIC.

The further disclosures concerning the Secretary of State, if any, would relate to his gross incompetency, the numbness of his sense of official dignity and propriety and the deafness and dumbness of his political conscience. —New York Sun.

RUSSIA'S POWERFUL ALLY.

His Destination.

Wendell Phillips, while on a railroad journey one day, met a crowd of clergy returning from conference. One of the ministers felt called upon to approach Mr. Phillips, and asked him:

"Are you Mr. Phillips?"

"I am, sir."

"Are you trying to free the niggers?"

"Yes, sir; I am an abolitionist."

"Well, why do you preach your doctrines up here?"

"Excuse me, are you a preacher?"

"I am, sir."

"Are you trying to save souls from hell?"

"Yes, sir; that's my business."

"Well, why don't you go there?"

The assailant hurried into the smoker amid a roar of unsanctified laughter.

Cutting.

In a case of slander a lady had gone into the witness box on behalf of the plaintiff, whose counsel was examining her.

"Now, madam," the lawyer began, "please repeat the slanderous statements made by the defendant on this occasion just as you heard them."

"Oh, they are unfit for any respectable person to hear," was the emphatic answer.

"Then," said the examiner, coaxingly, "suppose you just whisper them to the judge." —Tit-Bits.

Fultz of Vanceburg as a candidate for State Senator from this, the Thirty-second District, composed of Mason and Lewis counties, subject to the action of the Republican party as expressed at the State Primary election, to be held August 7, 1915. Your vote is kindly solicited.

MANY CHANGES AMONG BIG LEAGUE MANAGERS.

New York, January 30.—A major league baseball manager is just about as safe in his position as an aviator doing a double loop over mid-ocean. The records show that during the past twelve years no fewer than 63 men have managed the clubs in the American and National Leagues. Only three of this total, Fred Clarke of the Pirates, Connie Mack of the Athletics and John McGraw of the Giants, are now piloting the same teams as in 1903, the first year of the present American League circuit. The following shows the manager of the different clubs from 1903 to the present year:

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

New York: John McGraw; Pittsburgh: Fred Clarke; Boston: Al Buckenberger; Fred Tenney; Joe Kelley; Frank Bowerman; Harry Smith; Fred Lake; Fred Tenney; John Kling; George Stallings; Chicago: Frank Selee; Frank Chance; Johnny Evers; Hank O'Day; Roger Bresnahan; Philadelphia: Charley Zimmer; Hugh Duffy; Bill Murray; Charley Doan; Pat Moran; St. Louis: Patsy Donovan; Charley Nichols; Jim Burke; John McCloskey; Roger Bresnahan; Miller Huggins; Brooklyn: Ned Hanlon; Patsy Donovan; Harry Lumley; Bill Dahlen; Wilbert Robinson; Cincinnati: Joe Kelley; Ned Hanlon; John Gangel; Clark Griffith; Hank O'Day; Joe Tinker; Charley Herzog.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Philadelphia: Connie Mack; Detroit: Ed Barrows; Bill Armour; Hugh Jennings; Boston: Jimmy Collins; Chick Stahl; Bob Unglaub; George Huff; Jim McGuire; Fred Lake; Patsy Donovan; Jake Stahl; Bill Carrigan; Chicago: Jimmy Callahan; Fielder Jones; Billy Sullivan; Hugh Duffy; Jimmy Callahan; Clarence Rowland; Washington: Tom Loftus; Jake Stahl; Joe Cantillon; Jim McAleer; Clark Griffith; St. Louis: Jim McAleer; Jack O'Connor; Rhody Wallace; George Stovall; Branch Rickey; New York: Clark Griffith; Norman Eberfield; George Stallings; Hal Chase; Harry Wolverton; Frank Chance; Roger Peckinbaugh; Bill Donovan; Cleveland: Bill Armour; Larry Lajoie; Jim McGuire; George Stovall; George Davis; Joe Birmingham.

OBEDIENCE.

Great and sacred is obedience. He who is not able, in the highest majesty of manhood, to obey with clear and open brow a law higher than himself is barren of all faith and love and tightens his chains moreover, in the struggle to be free.

SUNS OF THE NIGHT

Wonderful Spectacle That Heaven's Vault Offers To Man.

(New York Sun.)

It is indeed a relief to turn occasionally from matters terrestrial to matters celestial. Overhead, seen through the darkened window of the sky, there sparkle and scintillate the suns of night and particularly at this season these suns of night are brilliant and spectacular.

In the southern section of the be-spangled dome there is to be seen around the hour of 9 what may well be termed "winter's most glorious galaxy," a group of six conspicuous suns and four conspicuous constellations. In this firmamentary group there are such suns as Sirius, Capella and Rigel, such constellations of Orion, Taurus and Auriga, as well as the beautiful cluster of the Pleiades and the unique twin suns, Castor and Pollux.

And after studying and admiring the glories of this galaxy we may also study and admire the planet Saturn, which at present happens to be situated prominently in this same southern section of the starlit dome. To find Saturn we must look rather high, and then we shall discover him below brilliant Capella, near the zenith and above flickering Betelgeux, near the top of Orion. In other words, Saturn lies between Castor, Pollux and ruddy Aldebaran. In general appearance, without a telescope, and one should at this time take a peep at Saturn through such a glass, this beautiful planet exhibits a bright, clear, non-sparkling, yellowish firmamentary body.

As a planet, Saturn is some 760 times as large as our earth. This remarkable planet varies at different times in its distance from our earth; but the average of such distances is approximately 800,000,000 miles. Since Saturn is so much further away from King Sol than we are, and its progress over its solar orbit much slower, this large planet's "year," or time of one revolution is about 10,759 days; our own year being 365 1/4 days.

There are other peculiar and interesting facts about Saturn, such as its ten moons and girdle of three rings; and, owing to its presence and that of the glorious galaxy, the southern evening firmament is well worth more than a few moments study and admiration.

That the conference of the Governors of Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia and Florida which has been called by Governor Ralston of Indiana to meet in Chattanooga on April 3 in the interest of the proposed tributary of the Lincoln highway, from Chicago to Jacksonville will be a big success from a point of attendance at least is evidenced by the favorable replies which are being received by the Chattanooga Automobile Club from the Governors interested and others.

As an example of the interest and enthusiasm which has been stirred up in the proposed main highway from the north to the south, Mr. C. E. James of Chattanooga, who has long favored a direct highway from Louisville to Chattanooga on a routing which would have a mileage of 221 miles, has offered to give $50,000 toward the building of the stretch of the road from Signal Mountain Inn to Crossville along the crest of Walden's Ridge.

TALK IS CHEAP

Lower Prices For Meat and Shoes In Prospect For People of the Country, 'Tis Said.

Washington.—The Department of Agriculture sees cheaper meat and shoes for the people of the country in figures gathered by its agents, showing that the number of live stock in the United States is on the increase. In a statement issued the department discounted reports that prices were bound to rise, and said that on January 1 there were 7,712,000 more live stock in the United States than on the same day a year ago. This was the first time in many years, the statement said, that an increase had been shown.

ENDS LONG SERVICE ON THE BENCH.

Richmond, Va., January 30.—Associate Justice John A. Buchanan of the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals, retired from the bench today after 20 years of service in the state's highest tribunal. After serving in the state Legislature and in Congress, Judge Buchanan had retired to private life when he was elected to the Supreme Court bench in 1895.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it.

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Gossip From the National Capital—European Diplomats Outwit Uncle Sam—News and Views in General.

Washington, January 30.—Many years of effort to lay the foundation of a system which will give the United States an adequate supply of men trained for the diplomatic service are being rewarded. The provision for grades in the consular service and among the minor officers of the diplomatic service will remove from politics many posts that have been exposed to the degenerating influence of the spoils system.

Under the new arrangement an official may be transferred from any station in one grade to another station in the same grade without the formality of the Senate's approval. The confirmation of the Senate still is necessary when any official is raised or lowered a grade.

Fifth class secretaries also are provided. They are to form the student body from which they will be promoted to the more important grades.

The United States has been at a great disadvantage during its entire history due to the scarcity of trained diplomats. In nearly every other country diplomacy is a career. Young men enter the diplomatic service with the intention of making it their life's work, just as men here select law or medicine as their professions. Thus ambassadors and ministers are selected from the ranks of men who have studied the work for years and who have been in the thick of actual diplomatic experience from early manhood. As a result it has been comparatively easy for European diplomats to carry off honors when they have pitted their skill against the inexperienced Americans.

Public demand for more systematic procedure in regard to our foreign service has become so insistent that it is expected the next few years will see the entire diplomatic corps removed from politics.

There is plenty of evidence on Capitol Hill that the pendulum is swinging back, so far as labor legislation is concerned. Organized labor played no small part in the shaping of the Clayton bill. Legislation in several instances is said to have been effected by the activities of trade organizations to the extent that unfair advantages have been given.

It is certain that the American people are as ready to resent a labor monopoly as a monopoly on the part of capital. There is talk of a labor commission, which will have the same supervision over labor unions as the Federal trade commission will have over capital or the Interstate Commerce Commission has over railroads.

It is with no feeling of unfriendliness that Congress is preparing to approach the question of regulating the great labor organizations. It is recognized that organized labor is a movement which is still in its infancy and that some mistakes in policy are inevitable. It is to correct some of these mistakes and to avoid others that some sort of Federal regulation is proposed.

That the wounds resulting from the Civil war have almost healed is evidenced by the efforts being made by Union veterans to secure Federal aid for Confederate soldiers. Senator Works of California, who fought in the Union army, has introduced a bill in the Senate popularly styled the "Blue and Gray bill." It provides that the $5,000,000 soldiers' home at Johnson City, Tenn., be turned over to Confederate veterans. In recent years death has cut such a wide swath in the ranks of the Union veterans that several of the government homes are only half filled. It is proposed to move the Union veterans now at Johnson City to some other home and turn over this magnificent institution to the surviving soldiers of the south.

General Albert Estopinal, who represents a Louisiana district in the House of Representatives and who is a veteran of the Confederate army, has introduced the "Blue and Gray bill" in the House. While there is little prospect of getting action on the bill at this session, it is believed that it will be shown that public opinion favors the measure.

AGREEING UPON THE NUMBER OF SNOWS NO EASY MATTER, SUH.

The man who tries to keep track of the number of snows this winter has a strenuous job of it. Old Major Bailey's answer to Judge Andrews as to the number of geese in a certain flock would seem to apply in this case. After dodging the question several times, the major said: "Well, suh, to the best of my judgment, suh, they was upwards of a d—n sight of 'em, suh." One business man had a snow shovel to keep the walk cleaned in front of a certain piece of property at 25 cents a clean, and one day last week he brought in a bill for four "cleans" in one day. "And he could prove up his claim, all right,"—Flemingsburg Times-Democrat.

"MYSTERY GIRL" BAPFLES KANSAS CITY.

Kansas City, Mo., January 30.—Is Miss Laura Catherman the victim of a strange dual personality, as many persons are inclined to believe, or merely an extremely clever actor, as some of the examining physicians declare?

This is the question that is expected to be determined next week, when the young woman will be arraigned in court to answer to charges of theft and forgery. Whatever the answer may be, the fact remains that no case with which they have dealt in recent years has baffled the police of this city more than that in which Miss Catherman is involved.

Altogether Miss Catherman is accused of appropriating, stealing, forging or otherwise getting hold of about $8,000, and not a cent of the money can be found or any record of it discovered. Private detectives and city detectives have followed every clew to the end and have found nothing.

A physician who examined her declared he did not believe she was insane, but more likely an extremely clever actor. Friends, however, stick to the theory that there is something unusual the matter with the young woman's brain. The police are of the opinion that the problem would be placed near solution if only they could find out what Miss Catherman did with the money. But so far, every effort along this line has ended in absolute failure.

FARM AND STOCK NOTES.

Charles W. Caldwell of Boyle county recently delivered to Monte Fox, 105 cattle, averaging 1,165 pounds. They were sold at $8.30 per hundred. These cattle were extra good, and brought the sum of $13,000.

Fairly good prices were realized at the sale of business and work horses held Saturday morning at the Lexington stock yards. Sixty-five head were sold at prices ranging from $65 to $185, averaging $110 per head.

Richard H. Wills of Paris bought a road horse from E. R. Little of Mt. Sterling last week at $160. Mr. Wills also bought several horses from other Montgomery county farmers at prices ranging from $125 to $150 per head.

At Versailles last week, United States Senator Camden sold 1,000 bushels of wheat to the Farmers' Union Mill at $1.30 per bushel. J. O. Rogers & Sons of Woodford also sold 2,000 bushels of wheat to the Farmers' Union Mill at $1.30 per bushel.

H. S. Caywood of Bourbon received last week from S. English Anderson of Montgomery county, 46 head of 1,056 pound cattle, which he purchased at $7 per hundred pounds. The stock was shipped to Swift & Company, in New York, Wednesday.

J. C. Caldwell of Boyle sold to Sim Weil of Lexington and other buyers, the past week, 447 head of export cattle, averaging 1,400 pounds at prices ranging from $8 to $8.40, and brought $70,000. This is the largest cattle deal in the history of Boyle.

W. H. Houston, a farmer living near Bardwell, has just received $250 in gold as a prize for having produced the largest number of bushels of corn on an acre of ground last year. The prize was offered by a New York firm that manufactures fertilizer. Mr. Houston raised 204 bushels of corn on his acre. Year before last he won a similar prize offered by another concern.

M. J. Farris, Jr., of Boyle county, and B. G. Fox purchased last week 25 mules for C. A. Wright of Columbia, Tenn., the animals running in price from $100 to $140 and designed for shipment to Nashville, Tenn., where the British and French government inspectors are receiving 1,000 head a week. This makes 100 head the Tennessee buyer has shipped from central Kentucky within three weeks, paying over $13,000 for them.

A top of $25,000, and an average of $872 on 172 head of Holsteins was reached at the sale of the Fairview herd, sold by the estate of the late E. H. Dollar at Heuvelton, N. Y. The 42 bulls averaged $1,256.30 and 130 cows $747.90.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK.

Washington, January 30.—President Wilson and Secretaries Bryan, McAdoo and Redfield will be among the speakers before the convention of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, which is to meet in Washington on Wednesday for a three-day session. The Senate committee on foreign relations has fixed Wednesday as the day for a hearing on Senator Hitchcock's bill prohibiting the exportation of arms, ammunition and artillery to belligerent nations.

An address, which will be a message to the people of the United States in defense of the Wilson administration, will be delivered by William Jennings Bryan at a public meeting in Indianapolis Tuesday night. The meeting will follow a banquet of the Indiana Democratic Editorial Association.

The trial of William Lorimer, president of the defunct La Salle Street Trust and Savings bank, and once holder of a seat in the United States Senate, is scheduled to begin in Chicago Monday. Lorimer and other officers of the bank are under indictment charging them with conspiracy to defraud.

Former President Taft, Governor Goethals of the Panama canal zone and possibly former President Roosevelt will be witnesses at the trial of John Burke, former manager of the commissary department of the canal, indicted for accepting a bribe, which will begin in New York Tuesday.

MISS McADOO TO BE A NURSE.

London, January 29.—Russia has answered the new Austro-German offensive movement in Hungary and Bukovina with a sudden resumption of the attack on the Germans in their own territory. Throughout the region in the dual kingdom where the Slav elements predominate their slogan seems to be "down with the war."

Show Railroads Have Been Subjected To 3,459 Orders In Four Years.

Chicago.—Statistics showing that in the past four years western railroads have been made subject to 3,459 orders and laws by commissions, municipalities and state legislatures were presented to the Board of Arbitration in the wage hearing here today.

"They cover every subject from drinking cups to wedding the right of way," declared Warren S. Stone, of counsel for the engineers, after glancing down the list presented by the railroads to show the burdens to which they are subjected.

James M. Sheehan, attorney for the railroads, explained that it was impossible to estimate in money the cost of these regulations to the roads.

THE LITERACY TEST VETOED BY PRESIDENT.

The much disputed literacy test would provide, "all aliens over 16 years of age, physically capable of reading, who can not read the English language or some other language or dialect, including Hebrew and Yiddish, shall be excluded from the United States."

Exempted, however, are those who prove they emigrated to escape religious persecution, and any admissible alien might bring in his father or grandfather, more than 55 years old, his wife, mother, grandmother, or unmarried or widowed daughter, who can not read.

Aside from various other restrictions the bill proposes that any immigrant who advocates destruction of property or resistance to law and order—in short, revolutionary tendencies—might be debarrd or deported within five years of his admission.
